A NOTE FROM REV KEN

With the delivery of this magazine you should also have received a letter regarding stewardship. This is something the Church of Scotland say we must do every three years.

You will realize how your own costs rise annually and the church is no different. If our church is going to continue its witness and activity in our parish we require our membership to support it financially.

Our church has also changed its constitution to a Unitary Constitution. The main difference this will bring is that we can now dispense with the Congregational Board and our Kirk Session will be responsible for all matters spiritual and temporal.

The Kirk Session now have powers to co-opt anyone from the congregation or outside it to assist them with particular tasks, provided the person selected is willing to do so.

The Kirk Session has been divided into four committees who will be given powers to act up to certain limits set by the Kirk Session. These are Stewardship & Finance, Fabric, Mission & Outreach, Fund Raising & Events and Administration. This should speed up decision making and make the Kirk Session more efficient.

The buildings at Dalmilling are now being used much more by community groups and it is good to see the church being seen again as at the centre of the community. There is a buzz about the place again. This gives us the opportunity to tell the good news of Jesus to those who come in and out our buildings and there are many ways in which we can do this. To help with this task our Fabric Committee under the able leadership of Gwyn Williams is doing sterling work. The Dalmilling buildings have been neglected over the years and we are now starting a process of refurbishment.

This has been a busy year in the church. Much has happened. Unfortunately there is no sign of interest from ministers who might apply to lead you. You are not alone! More than 200 churches are in the same position. We must continue to work for the Lord during this time of vacancy. We need all members who are reasonably fit and able to play an active part in this process. If you have not been doing this I implore you to think again and help us with our tasks.

When you are busy time seems to fly and this year has seen that happen from my point of view.

Christmas is just around the corner with all the clutter the modern Christmas Season brings.

In the Church let us not forget the wonder of what is at the heart of Christmas, the wonder of God coming down to earth to reveal himself to us and to save us from ourselves. I hope that those who are fit will make attendance at our Christmas services and events a priority.

I pray that you and yours will have a happy and peaceful Christmas and that you will celebrate your faith within the family we call the church.

Rev Ken

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

This year special focus is being given to mark the centenary of the ending of the First World War, 1918—2018.

Once again we were joined by members of RAFA, our Bugler and representatives of 1st Dalmilling Brownies. When it came time to lay wreaths the Brownies also laid one which they had made themselves.

During the service Ken dedicated the new flag belonging to the Brownies and asked the girls to reaffirm the Brownie promise.

We also watched a short video (<https://spoken-truth.com/john1135>) on Remembrance with a recurring emphasis of the words John 11:35.

After morning worship and a short service at Whitletts War

Memorial the congregation returned to the hall for a Soup and Sandwich lunch.

We were also joined today by members of various groups who use the church halls. It was good to come together in fellowship this way.

Services at Claremont Care Home

Rev Ken has arranged for monthly services to take place in Claremont Care Home on the first Monday of every month at 2pm starting in December.

He is hoping to form a team of helpers who will assist with handing out hymn books and sometimes participating in or conducting services from time to time.

If you think you could help please contact him on 07762835269

Informal Discussions 10:30 –11:30am

These are taking place in Dalmilling Church on Thursday mornings when the Community Cafe is open. This series is based on the first two chapters of Paul's letter to the Philippians. Questions being discussed are Why Church? Why pray? Why Jesus? Why humility? Why light?

It is hoped that members and friends will come along and either enter into discussion or simply listen to other's contributions. Tea and coffee will be available after the discussions.

Rev Ken

FUNERARY HATCHMENT

During the period of roof repair work and subsequent refurbishment at Auchincruive, two large (more than 5ft in height) canvasses were very much in our way. They were regarded as very old and “something” to do with the Oswald Family.

These have now been identified as Funerary Hatchments.

A Funerary Hatchment is a depiction within a black lozenge-shaped frame, generally on a black background, of a deceased’s heraldic achievement showing the family arms and crest together with indications of the supporters of the person and family.

The word Hatchment is a corrupted version of the word ‘achievement’.

Hatchments were usually placed over the entrance of a deceased nobleman’s residence and displayed for a period between 40 days and a year, after which they were removed to the local church. The practice developed in the early seventeenth century from the custom of carrying an heraldic shield before the coffin of the deceased.

The items on the shields correspond with images on the Oswald and Haldane families. Two of the “occupants” of our crypt and likely candidates for these Hatchments, are Richard Oswald (1705-1784) known as the Peacemaker after his work in writing the peace treaty which eventually ended the American War of Independence and Alexander Haldane Oswald (1811-1868), MP for Ayrshire 1843-1852.

FABRIC MATTERS

Dalmilling Church Roof Repairs.

The work on the main Church roof including its attached four areas of flat-roofing is now complete. This included replacement of all broken or missing tiles, stripping off and re-doing all the flat roof areas and replacing rainwater gutters, hoppers and downpipes.

We are grateful to Glenbuild Roofers for their advice and efficiency in completing the task.

We are also grateful to the General Trustees of the Church of Scotland for their grant of £10,000 – a significant help with the bill of £21,960!

We should, hopefully, not find ourselves with any roof leaks this Winter.

Gwyn Williams

AYR: ST QUIVOX HALL-CHURCH AT DALMILLING

Serving the Community for 65 years and still open

The Foundation Stone was laid in 1952 and the church opened in 1953 to serve the newly built community of Dalmilling. A busy church at the heart of the community it was filled to overflowing with younger children attending Sunday School in the morning and older children in the afternoon. This was remedied in 1975 when the Hall extension opened.

Sadly over the years, like many churches, our membership has dwindled with no young people joining. This led to the loss of many of our youth organisations.

Now however with the Tots Group, Brownies & Rainbows and a Dance Group the halls are once again filled with children.

As you will see from reports in the magazine there are also the Bowlers, Friendship Group and Sewing Corner using the halls. Other groups include War Games, Wild Rhythm Group and U-NIQ café.

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOUR?

Last month found me cycling, one rainy morning, in the rush hour in Perth. I was in a hurry and, trying to be clever, was undertaking a queue of cars waiting at the traffic lights. I misjudged my path through a puddle, hit the pavement edge, and landed; sprawled across my bike, face down on the concrete!

In the split second between realising what had just happened and wondering if I was going to be able to get up again, I saw three things. The first was that all the car drivers drove off. The second was a teenage lass at the nearby bus stop who looked up from her phone, glanced at me and immediately looked back down at her phone; and the third was an Asian man in his 20s, behind her in the bus queue, who started towards me, looking anxiously to see if I was ok or needed help.

It made me think, as in the parable, how important it is, and how much it matters, to be the kind of person who, without being asked, will come forward immediately to help someone in trouble, regardless of differences, and even if it might be an inconvenience, just because it is the right thing to do.

(I was OK. Just a bruised knee, an acute case of embarrassment and a valuable lesson in safe cycling learned!)

THE SEWING CORNER

We had a break during September and started back mid October. There are two classes on Thursdays; one in the morning and one in the afternoon. One or two gentlemen from the community have come to join the ladies and all are most welcome. By learning how to make clothing such as skirts, dresses or simple jackets, we learn how to look objectively at clothes in the shops and see if they are well made and worth the price, and also if they fit well enough to be bought! We also have a good chat, lots of laughs and talk about everything under the sun.

We've had some very good news in that we've been awarded £1000 in the TESCO Bags of Help scheme. Our very grateful thanks goes to everyone who supported us by putting the blue tokens in the Sewing Corner box!

I'm in discussion with one of the Community Workers, Paul Ageo, about setting up a class for local lades to make Canny Cookers (a kind of well padded fabric container which can keep food hot without using energy, so keeping costs down) and I'm waiting to hear back from Seascape about the possibility of having some of the Syrian refugee ladies from Monkton over to do some sewing.

Thank you once again for all your support.

Brownies

by Dalmling Brownies Brown Owl Lise Whittle

You may have heard in the national and local press that Girlguiding have introduced a brand new programme. This is going to be a very exciting time for everyone. We Leaders have already seen the new programmes and the completely new range of badges, it is all refreshingly improved and gives us the opportunity to offer girls exciting new opportunities. There is still a change-over period of a year when the old programme can be used, and the old style badges are still absolutely valid to be worn - and will eventually become very special prized heirlooms! We Leaders are getting to grips with the new programme, we have already attended a local County training day and taken part in several online training sessions and webinars.

There are 6 new Themes within the new programme across all the sections of Girlguiding (ie Rainbows, Brownies, Guides and Rangers);

- Know Myself – explore who you are
- Express Myself – show off and share your creativity
- Be Well – know what it is to be healthy
- Have Adventures – explore outdoors and nature
- Take Action – Help yourself and others
- Skills For My Future – learn useful skills for life

Within each theme there are lots of exciting badges. In the Brownies section, the girls can work towards badges such as; Collecting; My Rights; Local History; Performing; Painting; Baking; Dancing; Grow Your Own; Mindfulness; Archaeology; Aviation; Space;

Charities; Speaking Out; Zero Waste; Inventing; Jobs; Languages.
At Dalmilling Brownies we have already started our first new badge, which is the 'Know Myself, Be Well' theme badge. We'll let you know how we get on!

Here is a message from Girlguiding;

At Girlguiding we're committed to helping girls and young women learn new skills, grow in confidence, make lifelong friends and have fun. And we're thrilled to share the news about our new programme of activities, badges and awards.

With the help of almost 45,000 girls we developed and tested new activities, to make sure that girls' experiences will be even better than they are now. Our modernised programme will give every girl the opportunity to thrive, succeed, make change and be happy in the modern world.

You might have already spotted information about the new badges in the press, including a new digital design badge, a money saver badge and an aviation badge. As well as working towards lots of new badges, girls will continue to enjoy getting outside and having exciting adventures!

Please do look out for more information on our website and in the press.

Brownies meet in Dalmilling on a Monday night.

Christmas Present

The rain is blattering, splattering down and I have decided to go to the town to buy all my presents, to spread all that joy with a bottle of smellies or new fangled toy.

*I'm wet, I'm sodden, I'm drenched to the skin,
my wellies are leaking and chaffing my shin,
there's a drip at my nose and I blow it away
as a car passes by and soaks me with spray.*

*I can't help but think as I trek round and round
this season, the reason for spending my pound, has lost all the magic and wonder for me
as I spot rainbow unicorns hung on a tree.*

*A commercial explosion has taken its place and smothered the Christmas of Goodness and Grace.
I'm going back home to consider my stance on this secular Christmas that's geared to finance.*

Many thanks to everyone who contributes to the flowers which decorate the sanctuaries, in both churches, every week. After the service the flowers are taken to people in our congregation who are ill, in hospital, or bereaved. They can also be given to celebrate a special occasion such as birthdays, or anniversaries.

There are still a few spaces in the current lists. So if you would like to commemorate a birthday, anniversary or any other occasion, please add your name to the lists in either church.
